

Man electrocuted in Lokoja

By Isiaka Oyibo

LOKOJA — THE entire Obehira Community in Okene Local Government Area of Kogi State was Thursday thrown into mourning as a 25 year-old man, Wahab Sheidu, got electrocuted while connecting electricity to a neighbour within the metropolis.

Eye witnessed at the scene of the incident said the deceased met his untimely death when one of his legs slipped off the last step of the ladder in an attempt to rectify an electrical fault.