OWERRI—A 100-level student of Imo State University (IMSU), Owerri, simply identified as Peter, has been reported killed by unidentified gunmen in front of his off-campus hostel in the metropolis last Wednesday. Vanguard investigations revealed that the dastardly act took place in front of Divine Hostel located along Ibe Street, Orji, Owerri North local government area of Imo State.

An eye witness, who spoke on strict grounds of anonymity, confirmed that gunmen swooped on the hostel while the student, who was fondly called “Tu-Face” and his colleagues were busy washing their personal effects.

Weeping intermittently as he recounted the sordid ordeal, the witness said that “on arrival in front of the hostel, the gunmen started firing indiscriminately, and this resulted in everybody helter skelter, and scampering into safety and in different directions”.

where was the nigerian police

it is unfortunate that such killing will happen in the heart of a town like owerri, whereby hoodlums and cultists will be shooting indiscriminately and, at the end they will escape scot free without any effort by the police to apprehend them.

Well in a country like Nigeria, even the rich and the mighty are all experiencing the dilemma of unresolved murder cases. All have fallen victim of these both old and young, rich or poor, thus in Nigeria even a sitting Governor of a state can be killed without the culprit been apprehended. I think Nigeria is one of the worst security porous conuntry in the world.
