Gunmen kill bizman in Rivers

Written by George Onah
Tuesday, 16 December 2008

A Port Harcourt-based businessman, Chief Wale Adegboye was Sunday, gunned down by some unknown men as he drove out of his residence at Oporo Road on his way to a Catholic Church in Rumukrush, Rivers State.

Vanguard learnt that Adegboye who was said to be a major contractor with Shell Petroleum Development Company, drove in his Toyota Infinity, number RV 307-RVC and was about to negotiate into Rumudara from Oporo Roads when a vehicle brought his vehicle to a halt.

In what appeared like a meticulously-planned assassination, some men appeared from behind and at close range rained bullets into his head, and killing him instantly.

Police PRO, Rita Inoma-Abbey, a DSP, who confirmed the incident, said “there hasn’t been any lead to the incident but we have stepped into the matter. I shall let you know when investigations lead to anything”.

It was gathered that the wife and children of the “well known philanthropist in the state” were in another vehicle heading for the church too when the assailants struck.

Residents of the area wept uncontrollably when the news of the early morning killing went round.

Equally, some members of the family of Adegboye, who was the grand patron of the Rivers State Sports Writers Association of Nigeria, were aggrieved when they were informed of the brutal murder of the man.

The murdered man was the Chief Executive Officer of Wale & Dema and his body has since been deposited at the University of Port Harcourt morgue.

 May our God condole and comfort the family of the departed soul! It is a very great loss.

I put the wife and children in God's hand and He will be there for them as always.

 The Late Mr wale Adeboye is a very close friend to my family,so this hit home and it really hurts bad.He invited us last year when we came to visit nigeria in portharcourt at the same residence mentioned above.Im 40 now and he has been friends with my parents since i was 10 or 11 years old.I hope these fools get caught and feel the pain our family is feeling.How do people get away with this shit with all these noisy people someone should have seen something to convict these idiots.They are gonna have their own day to explain to God why they did this crime.While we should be preparing for christmas we are now preparing for a funeral.God please expose these people.I'll miss you uncle AKA.mr wale Dema and mommy stay strong for us and your kids i,ll call later.

 No matter the deed of any man, no one has the right to kill. This act was cruel, dastardly and cowardice. To those who committed it shall never go unpunished. It is clear, God says vengeance is mine.. Wale D as i fondly named you, rest in perfect peace !
