VANGUARD

January 6th, 2009

JIGAWA—Two people have lost their lives as dozens sustained serious injuries as a result of Fulani/Farmers clash at Kwari village in Sundumina district area of Birnin-Kudu Local Government, Jigawa State.

The genesis of the clash according to Vanguard's finding was as a result of the Fulani's attitude of encroaching farmlands resulting in their cattle to consume farm use belonging to farmers in the area, but for the intervention of the authority in the area it could have snowballed into a blood bath.

The chairman of the council, Alhaji Sani Abdullahi who confirmed the incidence to Vanguard, said it was unfortunate but thank God that it was put under control, adding that one Mallam Ilu Dan, a Fulani and one farmer, Mallam Muhammad Inuwa have lost their lives during the fight between the two parties while others sustained various degrees of injuries.

The council's vice chairman, Alhaji Khalid Yusuf Ibrahim who represented the Chairman stated that he has visited the scene of the clash and condoled with the families of the deceased and that the council will take care of the medical expenses of those who sustained injuries, pointing out that a committee has also been set up to advise the council on how to avert future occurrence of the incident.

According to the chairman, measures will soon be taken henceforth to ban night cattle rearing and Fulani festivals conducted at night hours. "We believe these will curtail the unending menace of Fulani and farmers pandemonium in the area, as such law will work on any of the parties who violate the rule".

He explained further that police in the area are investigating the matter with a view to bringing those involved in the clash to book, stressing that they were able to discovered 159 cattle and 71 sheep belonging to the Fulani who ran away and left them in the wake of the fight.
