Police kill 5 robbers in Ughelli

Written by Festus Ahon

AT least five armed robbers were last Wednesday shot dead by the Agbarho Police Division, Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State.

Our correspondent reports that the suspected armed robbers, whose corpses were brought to the Area Commander's Office, Ughelli Area Command, were killed by policemen on patrol during an exchange of gun fire with the police.

When contacted on telephone to comment on the incident, the Area Commander, Mr. Samuel Obiora said: "I cannot tell you no, I cannot tell you yes, because I am yet to get details of it."

He, however, said the commander was out to wipe out all criminal elements from the area and make it crime free, while also warning criminals to stay out of the area.

He said the police in the command was working in collaboration with community vigilance groups to ensure that the area was crime free, adding that the police would continue to collaborate with the vigilance groups in accordance with the police policy on community policing.

While commending the vigilance groups, he charged them to continue to collaborate with the police and work in accordance with the rules and regulations of community policing.
