

Guard shot dead by robbers at GKS for burial

By Emma Amaize

---

WARRI — ONE of the security guards, Kingsley Udu, shot dead by armed robbers who invaded the God's Kingdom Society (GKS) in Warri, Delta State, November 28, 2008 and killed two ministers of the gospel among others, would be buried at his countryhome, Olomoro in Iso-ko South local government area of the state, January 30

A statement by the family said, " Mr. Udu, aged 55 years was brutally killed on the 21st November 2008 by yet to be identified men of the underworld while on duty as a security guard at the premises of God's Kingdom Society (GKS), Warri.