ABU student murdered in Zaria

Written by Emeka Mamah
Thursday, 29 January 2009

Kaduna—A part two student of the Department of Veterinary Medicine of the Ahmadu Bello University (ABU), Zaria, Mr. Jacob Lucius, has been murdered by unknown persons.

Lucius who hailed from Kaura local government area of Kaduna state was born on November 28, 1986. Sources from ABU said that the deceased was murdered outside the campus before his corpse was brought into the university by the murderers ostensibly to cover their tracks.

According to the sources, the corpse of Lucius was discovered by one Hassan, a labourer attached to IDR Mango Plantation Farm, owned by the university.

The Information and Protocol Officer of the university, Mr. Bitrus Galmaka, confirmed the death adding that preliminary investigations suggested that the murderers might have travelled from Kaduna to Zaria.

According to Galmaka, three persons have already been arrested by the police in Zaria following the mysterious death of the student. However, further investigations revealed that two of those arrested include a sister to the deceased and her boyfriend even as unconfirmed reports indicated that Jacob was opposed to the relationship between his sister and her lover.

Meanwhile, the corpse has been deposited at the Human Anatomy, ABU, Zaria, while police investigations continue.
