LOKOJA—AT LEAST two persons were yesterday confirmed dead and scores of others injured when factions of the ruling Peoples Democratic Party, (PDP) In Okene Local Government Area of the State engaged themselves in a violent clash over the disbursement of funds.

The State Government had through its poverty alleviation programme released the sum of 32 million naira to the Council, particularly to the teeming supporters of the party especially youths in the area to discourage them from engaging in nefarious activities.

But the youths who were said to have turn out in their large numbers yesterday for the largesse suspected fowl play and in the ensuing pandemonium went berserk leading to a free for all .

Confirming the unfortunate incidents to newsmen, the Chairman of the Council Alhaji Yahaya Karaku said his father's residence was touched by the irate youths reducing it to rubbles.
