Lorry crushes 14 to death in Kogi

LOKOJA— IT was a gory sight to behold, Monday, at the popular Afor market in Ankpa Local Government Area of Kogi State as a truck loaded with diesel skidded off the road killing 14 people on the spot.

Vanguard gathered that the accident which occurred at about 2pm left scores of people wailing uncontrollably as the truck went over the victims crushing them beyond recognition.

When Vanguard visited the scene of accident, a combined team of men from the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) and the Police were seen making frantic efforts to remove the mangled bodies of the victims.
