Two armed robbery suspects killed in Maiduguri

Written by VANGUARD
Monday, 23 March 2009

Maiduguri—The military and police joint patrol team of the Operation Flush stationed in Biu Local Government Area of Borno, says it has killed two armed robbery suspects on the Biu-Maiduguri road.

The leader of the team, Lt. Col. Joseph Abiodun, said yesterday, in Maiduguri that the team attacked the suspects while operating on the road.

"The robbers were killed as they were robbing some citizens on that road. They opened fire on sighting my men and two of them were killed in the ensuing exchange of fire. "Several of them escaped with bullet wounds," he said.

He, therefore, appealed to medical practitioners in the area to report to the police any body found with bullet wounds.

Abiodun advised members of the public to assist the Operation Flush team with useful information that would help flush out armed robbers in the state.
