IBADAN — THE Oyo State Police Command has arrested a suspect, Mr. Timothy Makinde for allegedly killing his five-year daughter.

Vanguard gathered that the suspect who was said to be mentally deranged just brought out his daughter while the mother was away and started flinging her until she died.

The incident which reportedly drew tears from residents and passers-by at Ogbera area of Ibadan, happened on Tuesday.

Vanguard gathered that immediately the man was sighted handling the innocent girl in an unusual way, they raised alarm. But before they could summon courage to rescue the girl, she had died.

After realising the girl had died, one of the sympathisers called the police to wade into the matter.

While confirming the incident, the State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Olabisi Okuwobi, said the matter would be investigated to actually know the event that led to the alleged murder of the girl.
