

Oyo Police to investigate killing of corporal

By Ola Ajayi

IBADAN—THE Oyo State Police Command will investigate the killing of a corporal attached to the Rector, The Polytechnic Ibadan, Professor Moshood Nasar who died in a robbery attack on his boss and other members of the governing council of the institution.

The management staff of the institution were attacked by armed robbers while on inspection tour of a project at Saki.

According to a source, the armed robbers numbering 20 ambushed the vehicles conveying the staff to Saki.

When two of the robbers jumped to the road, it was gathered that the corporal named Hassan quickly shot at one of them.

But other members of the gang who were Fulani herdsman and some Yoruba men quickly rushed out of their hiding and ordered all of them to prostrate on the road.

The source narrated that the hoodlums then shot the rector's aide several times killing him on the spot. The rector was also reported to have been shot in the arm.
