

LAGOS

---

Two die in Lagos auto crash

By Evelyn Usman

LAGOS — TWO unidentified persons (a male and female) died while six others sustained varying degrees of injury, weekend, after a luxury bus with the inscription, Eko Transport, involved in a multiple accident at Oyebanji junction, Adeniji-Adele, Lagos State.

Reports said the luxury bus with number plate XT 101 MUS rammed into the vehicles at the junction after the driver lost control around 7am on Saturday.

An eyewitness told Vanguard that motorists who witnessed the accident said the luxury bus driver was speeding excessively while coming from the Third Mainland bridge when he ran into the vehicles.

It was gathered that those who sustained injuries were rushed to Lagos Island Hospital where they are receiving treatment while the corpses of the two dead persons were deposited at the hospital for autopsy.