

NIGER-DELTA

4 feared dead in communal clash

By Festus Ahon

UGHELLI—AT least four persons, including a community chairman, Chief Victor Adavwe, were feared dead at Gbaregolo-Ewu, Ughelli South Local Government Area, Delta State, weekend in a violent intra-communal clash over leadership tussle.

Vanguard gathered that the community had been locked in dispute over the leadership of the late Victor Adavwe, who was allegedly imposed on the people by his brother. The source who pleaded anonymity, said trouble started at about 6:00 am. when some youths of the community, who were opposed to the leadership of late Adavwe, mobilized against him and his supporters.

According to the source, late Adavwe, John Osiobe and two others, whose names were not known at press time were feared dead in the clash adding that the said Victor Adavwe, two others were killed on the spot while John Osiobe died in the hospital in early hours of yesterday.

ORDINATION: From right his wife, Dupe; their daughter, at Liberty Christian Church, A

Kidnapp

By Jimitota Onoyume

PORT HARCOURT—
THE five National