“As the passengers were still lying on the road, the driver of another luxury bus was unaware that there were people lying on the road and coming in high speed went over them killing fourteen of them on the spot.”

He gave a breakdown of those that lost their lives in the tragic indent to include 10 men, three women and a little girl. The corpses of the deceased, according to the FRSC boss had been deposited at the Federal Medical Centre FMC and State Specialist Hospital Lokoja. He, therefore, urged all those whose families and relations traveled and had not returned to check the hospitals for possible identifications of the victims.

The police spokesman, ASP Osunkanmi Ajayi, when contacted on the issue, also confirmed the development just as he noted that the luxury bus that overran the deceased had been impounded and was in police custody.

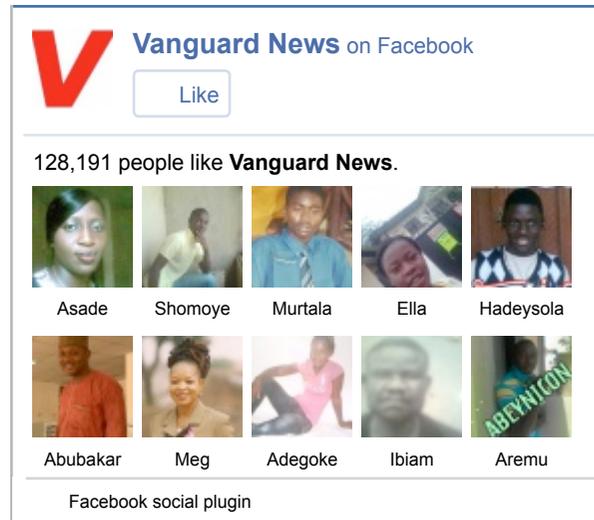

“The police are also closing up on the armed robbers and we shall soon get at them, “he said.

What a loss !!

FOR THE LUST OF MONEY !!!

The blood of innocents will always speak. Woe betide the robbers...they will indeed pay in this life and the one coming after.

Fright everywhere....the police is not there to save,Houses burn from candle light...due to lack of electric power supply.

Jobs are scarce, currency is almost valueless !!Do they really feel our pain?After all, at the end of every month...they share the national treasury, send their families abroad to have a good life while the mass wallow in grief, deprivation and emptiness...!!

But one thing is for sure....there's a God that judges ...No matter what you believe in...Christian,Muslim, Atheist...

There's a judgement for every work!!
