ASABA- TWO students of the Delta State University, DELSU, Abraka in Delta State have been reported dead in a blood-spattered clash between the Mafite and Black Axe secret cults in the university town.

The cause of the wafare, which jangled the university community, was still shrouded in secrecy, but a source told Vanguard that the cultists engaged themselves arising from a heated argument that erupted at a drinking spot.

Miss Amara Chinweze X, plz we don't understand the angry truth in your case, so be magnanimous in shedding' some light. Or is there anything you are laboring to cover?

Both the Delta state police spokesman, Mr. Charles Muka and the public relations officer of the university, Mr Eddy Agbure confirmed the death of two students.

Mr. Muka told Vanguard at 3.25 pm, yesterday, that he was not aware of the cause of the fight between the two groups.

Mr. Agbure also kept the names of the dead students close to his chest, saying, "The school authorities put in place measures that brought the situation under control".

Unconfirmed sources, however, put the death toll at five, saying that one of the
