LAGOS—Dare-devil robbers yesterday stormed the Lagos residence of Dr. Orji Uzor Kalu, former governor of Abia State in Victoria Island and shot dead one of his workers, Michael Ogbonna. The robbers numbering two also carted away N2 million.

The incident happened at about 4 pm. The robbers were said to have trailed the deceased and two others, who had gone to the Adeola Odeku branch of Diamond Bank, to withdraw some money. An eye witness, Emenike said the three of them went to the bank at about 3.30 pm to withdraw some money and came back to meet strange faces at the premises.

"After collecting the money, we came back to the house, only to find two men standing near the compound. "As we alighted from the vehicle, one of them came from behind and we suspected them and inquired about his identity and mission to the area," Emenike said. He explained that as the conversation was still going on, they discovered that the men were armed. "As we discovered that they were armed, two of us quickly ran upstairs to lock up the security door, leaving Mike behind. We were still there when we heard a gunshot. As we came back, we saw Mike in the pool of his own blood," he said.

The victim was quickly rushed to the hospital, where he was confirmed dead by the doctors, as he was said to have been shot at close range.

As at the time of filing this report, the incident was still being reported at the Bar Beach police station, Victoria Island.

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Samuel Jinadu denied any knowledge of robbery attack in the area, adding that he had not been briefed by the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in-charge of the area.

When informed that the people affected went to report the matter at Bar Beach bus stop and were still there, Jinadu promised to contact the DPO and get back to the reporter but he never did.

An eyewitness who spoke about the incident, said he was surprised at the absence of policemen in the area, as according to him, about five policemen were usually seen guarding Kalu's compound. He wondered why none of them was on duty at the time of the robbery.

"Robbers storms Kalu's house, kill one cart away..."

Vanguard set the bait here with this headline, but upon reading it, you will find out there are a lot of contradiction here and there.

"As we discovered that they (armed robbers) were armed two of us quickly ran upstairs to lock up the security door leaving ('crippled') Mike behind who doesn't have the dexterity of Usain Bolt which perhaps the other two has."

There may be a conspiracy theory here considering that three of them went to the bank together.

Mike is equally a worker in the house. Considering the money and that this is one of the numerous houses of Kalu a successful politician with some questionable allegations of corruption all over him.

But this is not a reason to vilify Mike by some people here because he may be a poor victim after all Kalu is not affected and will hardly visit there without security

Where were the rest of the occupants of the house? Mike had meningitis? Or he was a cripple? They ran to lock the security door, armed robbers saw them running and didn't shoot at them. They noticed the guys were armed and Mike still stood there watching them run. Question those two closely all over the place, you guys have a way of encouraging robbery, is that not like having 10000euros at home or $15000. why won't they attack, when they know there will always be money to steal.

2m, These Nigerians and carrying cash

This is very interesting except the reporter wrote something quite different from what we just read;how will the Guy that held the money be the target when the rest ran inside for safety without a dime and the callous robbers shot him dead after dipossesing him,my Guys I dont believe this storey,that Guy was set up by his colleagues ,the robbers are from the same house and knew very well the transaction may be he was not ready to cooperate in the in the cover up and as the result;he paid the supreme price.Well police over to you .

we need the presence of d Holy spirit to overcome this troublesome society. Nigerian\s need prayers, all hands must be on deck to unveil the perpetrators of this act irrespective of the person\s involved. The security agencies should unmasked the people behind this act.
