

Corporal shoots, kills Inspector at check-point

BY DAUD OLATUNJI

ABEOKUTA—A Police Corporal, identified as Taoheed Boladale, has allegedly shot and killed his superior officer, Inspector Ndidi Agbole at a check point in Ejirin road, Ijebu Ode local government Area Council of Ogun State.

Already the trigger happy policeman is said to have been summarily dismissed from the force while awaiting prosecution.

The tragic incident, Vanguard learnt took place at about 8.35pm on Sunday leaving many people in the area dumbfounded.

An eyewitness claimed that the Corporal had earlier threatened the superior officer and later carried out the threat, hitting Agole in his lower abdominal region causing his instant death.

A police source confirmed the incident and said the Corporal was dismissed immediately after.

The corpse of the Inspector, a Delta indigine has since been deposited at the General Hospital, Ijebu Ode's morgue.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Muyiwa Adejobi, confirmed the incident, saying the Commissioner of Police, Mr. Nicholas Nkemderen had directed that the matter be charged to court.

Adejobi said "The matter is true. The incident occurred and the culprit has been arrested and given orderly room trial. He has been detained and the Police Commissioner, CP Nicholas Nkemderen has directed that he be charged to court."

Ex-board member carpets Mark over NDDC remark

BY DAYO JOHNSON

AKURE—A former Ondo State representative on the immediate past Governing Council of the Niger Delta Development Commission, NDDC, Dr.

next six months.

Enikuomehin said: "Since no former board member of the commission was indicted