

9-yr-old girl killed in auto crash

A NINE-YEAR-OLD girl, Oyinkansola Fogobeen, was confirmed dead after a Toyota Mini-Bus ran over her at Bariga area of Lagos State. Crime Alert gathered that Oyin, as she was popularly called, met her untimely death on her way back from school. An eyewitness told Crime Alert that the Toyota Mini-Bus with Reg. No. XA 634 CAL, ran over her from behind and the driver took to his heels when he discovered that she was dead. An eyewitness who identified himself as Charles Obong, said the bus was almost set ablaze by angry youths who smashed and destroyed the windscreen. They were prevented by policemen from Bariga Police Station. Contacted, Lagos

State Police Command Spokesman, Samuel Jinadu, said the ill-fated bus is currently in police custody adding that the police is also making efforts to trace the runaway driver.

Police arrest 3 bandits at Ojo-Igede

THREE members of a robbery gang that have been in police wanted list for long were last week arrested by detectives attached to Ilembe Hausa police station recovering arms and ammunition.

Crime Alert gathered that the suspects were arrested after the police, acting on information, raided the area and arrested the robbers at various hideouts along Ojo-Igede road, Ajamgbadi.

A police source who gave identities of the suspects as Anayo Sunday, Olarewaju Precious, and Saheed Rasheed, said they were apprehended without much confrontation. He further stated that plans have been on going to trap these suspects until they met their Waterloo.

The robbery suspects were found to be in possession of one locally made double-barrel shotgun, three live cartridges and one jack knife.

Police public relations officer, DSP Samuel Jinadu confirmed that the suspects are presently undergoing interrogation and have been aiding the police with useful information.