DUTSE – SOME suspected members of Boko Haram have attacked the Birniwa Divisional Police Headquarters in Jigawa State, killing a teenage girl and injuring a police officer before burning down the building.

Birniwa Local Government council shares border with Nguru Local Government of Yobe State where the sect had inflicted pain on the people.

Sources told Vanguard that the attackers, numbering about 15, invaded the station, Tuesday night, and shot the police officer on the leg while the teenager was killed by a stray bullet from their encounter with the police.

It was gathered that the Boko Haram suspects had a field day in the station as the policemen on duty scampered for safety for fear of being killed.

The state Police Commissioner, Mr Hashim Argungun, confirmed the incident, adding that he had ordered an investigations into the matter.

Argungun, however, expressed doubts if the attackers were members of the Islamic Boko Haram or hoodlums.

This is the first attack by Boko Haram in the state and coming barely three days after President Goodluck Jonathan declared state of emergency in 15 local government areas of Yobe, Borno and Niger states.

Sect kills 3 in Yobe Borno

In a related development, Police said three people were killed in attacks by a Boko Haram sect despite a state of emergency in parts of the state.

Borno State Police Commissioner, Simeone Midenda said, yesterday, that two suspected Boko Haram gunmen shot dead the head of the Shehuri neighbourhood in Maiduguri Tuesday evening.

Yobe State police chief, Tanko Lawan, says suspected sect members also killed the leader of a neighbourhood in Damaturu during a simultaneous attack.

The police asked us to disregard the threat of boko haram. Are they still in that line of thought? How can the police that are unable to protect themselves protect nigerians? I WEEP FOR MY COUNTRY.

Well, what do you expect when the president decided to fight Boko Haram and the Masses at the same time? I just hope all these are not lost battles for GEJ.

I thought the police told us no cause for alarm just yesterday? If they can't protect themselves, how on earth could they guarantee our safety?

Who do you and I without the weapon and authority do the battle?

How can you guarantee me safety if I report a suspected BH to the police when they can't even protect themselves?
Nosnick is right in my opinion.
