 MAIDUGURI — GUNMEN suspected to be members of the Islamic Boko Haram sect bombed a kiosk in the Abaganaram ward, Maiduguri metropolis, injuring one of the soldiers that engaged the sect members in a shoot out for over half an hour, yesterday.

The bombings occurred as unknown gunmen attacked a police station for the second time in a week in Adamawa State, Tuesday, killing a police corporal and snatching his AK 47 rifle. This brings the number of policemen killed in the state to four within the week.

Last Sunday night, some unidentified gunmen ransacked the Shuwa Divisional

Police Station in Madagali Local Government Area, killing three police officers just as they attacked Demsa Divisional Police Station, about 40 kilometres from Yola, the state capital, Tuesday night, and killed their latest victim, after throwing four locally made bombs at different locations within the station. There were, however, no casualties.

However, yesterday's bomb attack by suspected adherents of Boko Haram, started at about 7.30 a.m, sending many people scampering for safety. The injured soldier was rushed to the University of Maiduguri Teaching Hospital, UMTH, by JTF patrol vehicle for treatment at the Emergency and Intensive Care Unit of the hospital at 9.35am. Five vehicles and six tricycles were also destroyed during the incident.

Confirming the story, spokesman for the JTF, Lt.-Col. Hassan Mohammed, said in statement: "At about 7.30 a.m, around the Customs Bridge area of Maiduguri, gunmen suspected to be members of Boko Haram detonated an Improvised Explosive Device, IED, in a kiosk. The explosion destroyed some cars in the area. However, no life was lost in the incident."

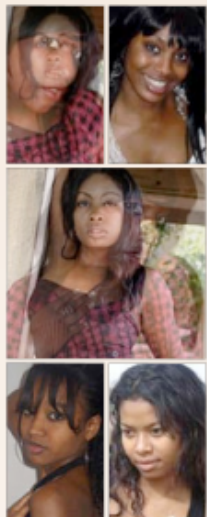

Meanwhile, the Adamawa State Police Command confirmed the attack. The Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Altine Daniel, who confirmed the story told Vanguard that one of the attackers was equally gunned down.

Is the federal government still waiting for BOKO HARAM to openly declare war on Nigeria before they will know there is war ? Why still leave police vulnerable at this time at that region ? Is this not the time the military seriously take decisive action and do what it should do ? suspend every police activity and use the military to comb the places and get this to an end.
