KANO—Unknown gunmen suspected to be Boko Haram members Monday, attacked the private residence of Imo State Commissioner of Police in Kano State, amid reports that three policemen were feared dead during the incident that triggered exchange of fire between the policemen and the attackers.

The residence is located at the Chiranchi Quarters. The exchange of gunfire caused pandemonium in the neighbourhood as residents and passers-by scampered for safety.

Kano State Police Command, however, confirmed the killing of only two policemen as well as the injuring of two others by attackers.

The affected area has been cordoned by the police for stop and search in a bid to arrest the fleeing gunmen.

Violent attack on security personnel has gained currency in recent weeks as no fewer than five officers had died since the January 20 bombings in Kano which left about 186 residents dead.

Initially, Mr Majia confirmed the shooting, but declined further information on the casualty figures, stressing that the area has been cordoned for possible arrests of suspects.

Meanwhile, the Kano Police Command has denied arresting the spouse of a suspected Boko Haram sect leader, Ahmad Shekau.

So three Policemen where feared dead and two injured during the incident that triggered exchange of fire between the policemen and the attackers?

And the Police cannot even kill or injure one of the attackers during exchange of gunfire?????

Then why are the policemen trained and given AK47 assault riffles in the first place???

Or the Police training is to killed,intimidate and harass innocent and unarmed civilians??????

IGP...you have long way to gooo!

boko haram attacked the resident of imo state commissioner of police, killed two officers and injured another two officers.

The police could not arrest them, but decided to do stop and search to arrest the fleeing boko haram members. If the police can make use of their brains, they will know that stop and search will not produce the very persons that attack them, but since they see every thing as an opportunity to steal, they will begin to arrest people, rape girls while those that are able to bail themselves will be released and those that will be unable to bail themselves will be taken to court for charges which are never short in our police files. What a way to conduct investigations. I WEEP FOR MY COUNTRY.

My brother, we have a useless police force. How come they were allowed to run away in the first place. The report says there 3was a shoot-out, did they not see who was shooting or they the police was just shooting for shooting sake. Something must be real wrong somewhere. U allowed who u were fighting to go, and now start harassing the public with stop and search. Knoe state police CP must be moved.
