NO fewer than two persons were feared dead while the residence of the chairman, Gwer local government area of Benue State was razed in a crisis that engulfed Aliade following a clash of rival political thugs at the PDP local government congress held in the area.

Eyewitnesses said the crisis broke out yesterday in the politically volatile town when the result of the local government ward congress indicated that the camp of a serving commissioner in the state had taken the lead.

focus on youth ministry quiz and debate as well as evangelism.

FCT Field Superintendent of TACN, Pastor Joseph R. Akpan, will lead ministers from the Field Headquarters in Abuja to join the Obalende/Lekki, Ogba, Iju and other Area Superintendents in Lagos Metropolitan and environs in ministration throughout the convention.
