

AAU student dies in a well, 30 others injured

BY GABRIEL ENOGHOLASE, Benin

TRAGEDY struck yesterday at Ambrose Alli University (AAU), Ekpoma as a student of 70m to free other

ly in police custody to the aborted abduction of Mrs. Iweta, wife of Madewell Cement Company, Sapele, Prince David Iweta, sometime ago, and the syndicate that abducted Mrs. Omene.

crisis in Abraka s murder allegedly murdered in the farm by the cattle herds over a disagreement.

Irate Abraka youths went on rampage when the news of the death of the woman filtered into the community.

Delta State police spokesman, DSP, Charles Muka, who confirmed the arrest of three suspects in connection with the alleged murder, said the police swept into action immediately to stop the youths from taking the law into their hands.

the University was feared died inside a well.

According to an eye witness, seven students of the University were said to have been relaxing on top of a well said to have been constructed 10 years ago at Kudirat Hostel Area of the university when the well suddenly caved in, killing one of them while three others were critically injured.

Both the dead and the injured students were said to have been rushed to Irrua specialist Hospital where they are currently receiving treatment.

As a result of the incident, the students of the university embarked on protest yesterday blocking the Benin-Auchi road forcing commuters to take alternative routes.

In apparent fear of damage to lives and property, the University management has ordered all students of the university out of campus and to proceed on Easter holidays.

Deputy Registrar of the University, Mr. Chris Adamaigbo, while confirming the incident, however denied the death of any student, saying that those affected were rescued and were now receiving treatments in the hospital.