KANO (AFP) – Thirteen people died and six others were seriously injured on Monday when a bus and a car collided near Azare town, in Nigeria's northern Bauchi state, a road safety official said.

“The two vehicles had a head-on collision in which 13 people died on the spot and six others were seriously injured,” Bauchi state head of the Federal Road Safety Commission, Zakariya Mamman, said on telephone.

“The accident was caused by dangerous driving and speeding,” he said.

This is very sad.Nigerians are dying like flies these days.If it is not bomb blast by BH,it will be avoidable accident,fire,kidnapping,armed robbery and stray bullets etc.

When will all these end?Road users are reckless,the roads are bad and neglected by government and buses are not in good condition and are often over loaded.Also,many drivers use drugs and alcohol while on the wheels.

The rate at which Nigerians die now is so alarming that no one is sure of living the next day.Na waooooooooooooooooooooooh numbers of people die everyday on nigeria state and federal roads as a result of careless driving by drivers who might have taking some alcohol liquor..our Govt is another problem we are facing . they failed make good roads and traffic stop every junctions that worth it. my sympathy to the
