A German, Raufach Edgar, who was kidnapped in Kano on January this year has been killed by his captors Thursday morning before he could be rescued by men of the JTF

The raid is still ongoing and sporadic shootings are still being heard by residents who are all trapped within their homes and unable to go to work. A military helicopter is also still hovering overhead, providing aerial support to the forces on the ground.

All rescue operations of this JTF have ended in disaster, can't they devise a safer means of negotiating with these kidnappers when issues like this arise, especially when foreign expatriates are involved? The whole thing is becoming a national embarrassment.

well done kidnappers catch foreign nationals and kill them all like rats. Nigeria security agencies are the most unqualified security agencies in the whole wide world they know nothing more than killing innocent Nigerians in the name of war on boko haram, collecting bribe from poor, rapping women, stealing public properties, bodyguarding the criminals like president jonathan and his co-travelers and so on. There is nothing good should come bad people like Ijwas and Igbos.
