AKURE—FIVE notorious armed robbery suspects have been apprehended by the police in Ondo State for killing two police officers in Kogi State and robbing Reverend Father Geoffrey Ogbuene of St. Mary Catholic Church, Trans Ekulu, Enugu, Police image maker in the state, Mr. Adeniran Aremu, said in Akure that the three suspects that robbed the clergyman were arrested in Lagos following a tip-off.

They were identified as Kalu Ben, Nesta Ucheghara and Efe Best.

Items recovered from the suspects included two laptops, three wrist watches, two identity cards, Olympus camera, five handsets and N73,000 and one black beret.

Aremu said the two others identified as Kazeem Kolawole and Audu Rabi, who killed two police officers in Kogi State were arrested in Owo, Ondo State and Ehinme in Kogi State with the officers' two assault rifles.

According to the state Command image maker, Kazeem was arrested in Owo by members of National Union of Road Transport Workers, NURTW, while planning to board a vehicle with a view to rob in Akure.
