Lagos - A 67-year-old woman was burnt to death in an early morning fire at a wing of a twin-duplex on 511 Road, Festac Town, Lagos, on Thursday.

The Commander, Festac Fire Station, Mr Chinyere Azubuike, confirmed the incident. He added that the remains of the deceased had been handed over to the police.

The Divisional Police Officer in Festac, CSP Muhammed Muazu, also confirmed the death.

Muazu added that the husband of the dead woman, who was also injured in the fire incidence, was responding to treatment in an hospital.

A neighbour, Mrs Ayinke Badru, said at the scene of the incident that the fire started around 1 a.m. on the first floor of the twin duplex.

Badru said that the 20-year-old son of the late seamstress escaped from the burning house and alerted neighbours who then called the fire services and the police.

According to the neighbour, the cause of the fire remained a mystery as there was no public power supply in the area at the time of the incident, and the kitchen of the house was unaffected.

The entire duplex, with wooden partitioning and flooring, was reduced to ashes however, that the second duplex was only slightly affected. (NAN)
