Gombe – Gunmen on Sunday morning attacked the All Saints Catholic Church, Kanoyel in Gombe State, killing a policeman who was on duty at the church.

A source said that the gunmen arrived at the church premises when the parishioners were coming out of the service and fired at the policemen.

The source said the gunmen also tried to gain entry into the church but that the parishioners shut the gate.

Rev. Fr. Williams Ochai, the Parish Priest of Church, said that the gunmen opened fire on the policemen deployed to guard the church during the mass.

According to him, as soon as the parishioners heard the gun shots, they immediately shut the gate to the church.

He, however, said one of the policemen died instantly while the other sustained serious injuries.

Reacting to the incidence, the Chairman, Christian Association of Nigeria (CAN) in Gombe State, Rev. Abare Kalla, described it as unfortunate.

Kalla said CAN had an information that there would be an attack but did not know where it would occur, adding that security agents were informed.

The chairman said the aim of the attackers was to gain entry into the church but that they could not succeed because of the fence.

He confirmed that a policeman deployed to the area was killed in the incident while another sustained injuries.

Kalla commiserated with the family of the policeman and prayed for the recovery of the injured.

When contacted, the state Commissioner of Police, Mr Ibrahim Abdullahi, told NAN on phone that he was in Abuja.

He directed reporters to the Command's Public Relations Officer, Mr Fwaje Atajiri, a Deputy Superintendent of Police.

"I have been promoted to the position of an Assistant Inspector-General of Police and I am now in Abuja for that purpose. So, get in touch with my PPRO," he said.

Fwaje, however, on phone said that it was only the Commissioner that would comment on the issue. (NAN) @ denge thats what the goverment always says. On top of the suitutions. Before I forget, what about those christians youth that, took dinner with muslims some times. I think they need to send more Corns, grains,.Beans, rice etc,.BH too. Iam sorry for them. They taught they are smarter than BH or hausa and fulani. The day they will open fire on all you guys is coming. Youve already sold una selfs out to mallams. They said that, is either you people convert to muslim or leave their place. But you are forcing your selfs tobe their friends. Is just like cat and mouse play. You all need to check the north history and thats what all of them have in their mind. No body.can ever rule that out of their mind. They are born to rule and they are redy to defend it. The killings and bombing can never ever stop. All the churches in the north none have C of O and why? Is this what they call one Nigeria? Hahahaahahaaaaaaa.

These animals of Boko haram `won't be tired of killing and bloodletting. How many more innocent people will they kill? There is no justification for this madness by Boko Haram. Why are we in the same country with Hausa Fulani Muslims?
