Besides the torching of GSM masts, the gunmen, suspected to be members of the Boko Haram sect, killed 16 people, including the Yobe state government protocol officer, Mallam Adamu, while returning from his duty post at the Government House, Damaturu.

according to the plan of those who initiated it. That's assuming the animals like Ciroma etc. who wanted to use it for political statement know any better. One crucial prediction: When there are no more christians and Nigerian christian businesses to attack, the attacks will be directed at themselves. For the avoidance of doubt, any attack on economic infrastructure in the north is certainly an attack on themselves. But how are animals expected to reason like human beings. A people who have equated politics to a blood sport (apologies Bill Clinton). Listen to the so called leaders from the north, and you'll understand why it's very easy to identify who is a boko haram, even when Jonathan has refused to name them by their names.

THE GREAT COMEDY IN THE REACTION TO ISLAMIC FUNDAMENTALISM AND JIHAD FROM NIGERIANS IS THE PRETENCE THAT THEY ARE SHOCKED OVER JIHAD AS THEY PRETENDED THE IGBO WERE THE PROBLEM IN THE SIXTIES. NIGERIANS ARE SATANIC, NO MORE NO LESS.

those who remain mute about BOKO HARAM insurgent would now have their own share of the dastardly act with the bombing of telecom mast and office.

An ill-advised case of "if we can't use phones anymore, then no one should" but the Boko haRAM should learn from their late uncle Osama Bin Laden whose determined efforts at shunning modern communications
(his Abbotabad address had no phone, Internet or cable tv) marked his undoing. All the Americans had to do was follow his trusted messenger!

Abubakar Shekau wherever he is cowering

tonight should understand he just hastened
his own end.

Boko Haram: Impeach Jonathan, or we all perished.

If President Goodluck Jonathan thinks that Boko Haram is just an ordinary insurgency, an internal matter or a child's play, then Mr President must be told in clear terms that, Boko Haram is real, and that, it serious threat not only to the Muslims and Christians in the northern parts of the country, but to the entire Nigeria, including the South, southern Muslim, Christians, politicians and non-politicians alike.

President Goodluck Jonathan is hereby advised to wake up and give 24/7 urgency and attention to the serious threat of Boko Haram insurgency. There is no doubt that the sect has links or affiliations with international terrorist organisations, which are providing the group with financial supports, armoury and logistics.

We must collectively come together to act and take decisions on Boko Haram, which if we failed to act decisively now could lead not only to the disintegration of the country, but will equally consume most of the nation's leaders and every citizens of this great country.

It is pertinent to tell those in authorities in the country that, Boko Haram will not dialogue, unless it achieved its aim, which is to divide the country, and then establish its own Islamic Independent country, as presently seen in Mali.

We hereby called on the NASS to do something urgently about President Goodluck Jonathan, who is only C-In-C on paper, but cannot act 'a general' talk-less of 'a private' in the Nigerian Army, as only a president with military background or a civilian tyrant president could save our dear country, as issues stand today.

Please, let someone tells Mr President that, Boko Haram is not a child's play, but that, it is real.

Time will tell...

I don't believe that this heinous act is done by muslims. May be other people are using it as a proxy to achieve their selfish agenda. It makes me to rethink that people who are agitating for autonomy might have hand in this Boko Haram issue. People must reason well before pointing accusing fingers. I rest my case.

The truth is bitter when it stares us in the face. Look at the Predominantly Muslim Countries around the world and see how much of Islamic peace they enjoy. The leaders always look for someone else to blame which is exactly what they are doing. This is the act of Extremist Muslims who espouse "takfiri" doctrine. Lets cut the pretense and face the facts. The JTF have been very successful in their operations against BH and communication has been key, This is a preparation for the next stage of the war because the people in these state are about to see an upsurge in violence without communication apparatus the JTF will always arrive late. The solution remains granting of indepence to these states so they can practice SHARIA in pieces! One Nigeria is over!
