of Federal Road Safety Commission, FRSC, Mr. Henry Olatunji, told newsmen, yesterday, in Bauchi that the accident involved two vehicles, a Honda Accord and a Peugeot J-Five.

He said the accident was as a result of downpour and over speeding by the drivers. He said all nine occupants of the two vehicles were male adults, adding that his team had evacuated the injured and the dead to Abubakar Tafawa Balewa Teaching Hospital, Bauchi.

He advised motorists to observe traffic regulations and avoid over speeding, especially during the rainy season.
