MAIDUGURI—FIVE persons, including a member of the Joint Task Force, JTF, operatives in Borno State, were killed in an explosion and gun attack in Maiduguri.

Four other JTF operatives were critically injured after an Improvised Explosives Device, IED, targeted at their patrol vehicle, exploded on Lagos Street in Maiduguri, yesterday.

Vanguard gathered that the JTF men were on routine patrol of the area, when the bomb went off around 8am. The patrol vehicle caught fire and was badly damaged.

A staff of the state Fire Service, who spoke on condition of anonymity, told Vanguard that he saw the body of a soldier lying on the floor, when they were called to put out the fire, adding that others were badly injured.

There was commotion in the area as traders and shop owners abandoned their wares and fled. Fierce-looking security operatives cordoned off the area for hours.

When JTF spokesman, Lt. Col. Sagir Musa was contacted on phone, he said he was not aware of the attack but confirmed that there was an explosion in the area and promised to give details later. However, at press time, nothing was forthcoming from him.

In another development, four people were said to have been shot dead, Sunday night, by some gunmen in Damboa Road area in Maiduguri.

Residents of the area said the people were shot dead by gunmen who stormed their houses behind CBN quarters.

Nigeria at 52: Achievements include Niger Delta Militants, Boko haram, armed robbers, kidnappers, fuel subsidy thieves, pension fund thieves, rogues and robbers in government at all tiers, sorrow, tears and blood on our highways appropriately described as death traps, no potable water for majority of the population, poor health facilities, poor sewage disposal, no jobs for the teeming population of graduates and youths, etc. When this nation is put side by side with other nations that have oil as a source of national wealth, it will be discovered that this nation is yet to come off the drawing board. only the leaders seem to be making any headway for obvious reason. This is one of the reasons why security challenges is on the ascendancy. Now boko haram is running wild all over the North because most of the jobless and idle people are easy recruits for the terror group. Many security agents are siding with the sect members and other criminal groups because they are fed up with the ruling class who lord's it over them to the extent that there seems to be no hope they will ever come out of their pitiable conditions unless drastic steps are taken. May GOD help this nation and it's leaders to get it right henceforth in JESUS' NAME.

Jeremiah 31:15-17.

Thus says the LORD:

A voice is heard in Ramah,
lamentation and bitter weeping.

Rachel is weeping for her children;
she refuses to be comforted for her children,
because they are no more.

Thus says the LORD:

keep your voice from weeping,
and your eyes from tears;
for there is a reward for your work, says the

LORD:

they shall come back from the land of the enemy;

there is hope for your future, says the

LORD:

your children shall come back to their own country.
