

Policeman runs amok, kills wife, another woman

BY UMAR YUSUF

YOLA — A POLICE Inspector posted to the private residence of Governor Murtala Nyako ran amok, Wednesday night, killing his wife and the wife of his landlord.

The incident happened at the Mayo Belwa Local Government Area of Adamawa State.

An eye witness told Vanguard in Yola that the Inspector (names withheld), who did not submit his arms and ammunition to the divisional police armourer after closing from duty, went home with it to allegedly kill the victims.

It was gathered that the officer on getting home first shot his wife dead before turning to his landlord's wife and killed her in the compound.

However, his landlord was said to have escaped, when he discovered that his wife and that of the policeman had been shot dead. The landlord was said to have reported the incident at the Divisional Police Station in the area.

Adamawa State Police command confirmed the incident.

The Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Ibrahim Mohammed, who spoke to newsmen said the suspect had since been arrested and currently undergoing interrogation at the state CID.
