Gunmen kill mobile police commandant

BY ABDULSALAM
MUHAMMAD

KANO—UNKNOWN gunmen, yesterday, evening shot dead the Commandant of Kano State Mobile Police Force, MPF, Dahiru Ibrahim Majia, at his private residence at Sabo Gandu Quarters in the municipality. The deceased is the elder brother of the state Police spokesman, ASP

Magaji Musa Majia. Details of the incident were sketchy at the time of this report, even as his death has thrown the Kano State Police command under a new Commissioner, Musa Daura, into total confusion. Police Public Relation Officer, PPRO, in the state, Magaji Musa Majia confirmed the story on telephone but failed to give further details. Majia told Vanguard: "I have lost my brother to gunmen in his private residence in Sabo Gandu this evening and we are making arrangements for the burial. That will likely come up tomorrow." The head of MOPOL under the police hierarchy is entitled to armed police escort and guards but at the time of this report officers in the command were ready to volunteers details over the incident.
