

Cult group kills 2 in Ogun

IJEBU-ODE — TWO persons were killed by suspected cult members in Ijebu-Ode, Ogun State, Wednesday evening.

The incident occurred at Ajegunle-Ijada and Ishado areas of the town.

According to reports, the victims, Lekan Ojaewele, 22, and Muiyiwa Adeyemi, 20, were apprentices in the barbing and electronics businesses.

Investigations, however, revealed that the deceased were accidental victims as their bosses were the targets.

While Ojaewele was said to have been killed on his way to his boss' shop by the cultists, Adeyemi was murdered while sleeping inside a shop belonging to his boss.

An eyewitness, who preferred anonymity, said the cult members came on motorcycles to launch the attacks.

Mr Yemi Odukoya, Head of Ijebu-Ode vigilance group, said the victims died in retaliatory attacks launched over the killing of a member of the Aye cult by the Eiye cult, Tuesday night.

Odukoya, who lamented the incessant killings in the town by cult groups, said his security outfit could not do much due to limited resources.

DSP Muiyiwa Adejobi, Ogun State Police Public Relations Officer, confirmed the incident and urged members of the community to assist the police with useful information that could lead to the arrest of the hoodlums.

curse on corrupt ice to the people and they are now bigger than the people.

"This kingdom is very rich with natural resources. There are many oil companies operating here, yet our people are dying of hunger because few individual have decided to take what belongs to the people.

"Any representative, whether in oil companies, politics, village headship, community leaders, youth leaders who delights in collecting gratification to glorify self or divert development opportunities coming to the kingdom, that person will die."

that soldiers
with such a
my uniforms
n the market.

age

ent, Mr R.I.
d the case
dgment.

delity

house."
at his wife
his business
n the same
business ad-
ing his cus-

er that we ter business
she was not

ay son or gdom who n held in ood of the

ed and beng politi-
ves of the es in the s, chiefs, eaders of
ting the positions

people to course of
l. Repre-
ple are no
nest serv-