

alley of deaths.

slabs from a destroyed culvert.

Efforts to contact Mr. David Akate, Cross River State Emergency Management Agency, SEMA, were unsuccessful as his mobile line was switched off.

A source said the six bodies were removed from the rubble of the collapsed building and deposited at the mortuary of the General Hospital, Calabar.

... kills one, sacks 101 houses in Kebbi

AUTHORITIES of Arewa Local Government Area of Kebbi State said, yesterday, that one person died while 101 households were sacked by flood in the area.

"We lost one life to the flood and 42 persons sustained injuries," Chairman of the council, Alhaji Ahmed Tanko said in Kangiwa, Kebbi.

He said farmlands were also submerged by the flood.

Tanko said property worth N23 million were destroyed in nine villages, comprising Bachaka, Yeldu, Dukki, Chibiki, Falde, Kuka Bakwai, Kangiwa, Gumindai and Alwata.

He said that the council would spend N10 million on the resettlement of the victims, adding that the council had also distributed 450 bags of assorted grains to the affected persons and 50 bags to widows.

Farmer kills man for