

Vanguard

BREAKING NEWS

TRANSLATE:::

Select Language ▼

50 Boko Haram terrorists killed in Borno – Army on September 06, 2013 / in New s 7:06 pm / Comments

BY NDAHI MARAMA, MAIDUGURI

Atleast 50 suspected Boko Haram sect members were killed in an encounter with Military Troops of 5 Brigade of 7 Division, Nigerian Army, Monguno when the terrorists laid ambush in two communities of Gajiram, the Headquarters of Nganzai and Bullabulin Ngaura of Konduga Local Government Areas of Borno state.

This was disclosed by the Spokesman of the 7Division, Leutenant Colonel Sagir Musa in an interview with newsmen in Maiduguri Friday.

Nganzai is about 73 kilometres, while Bullabulin Ngawra is 45 kilometres away from Maiduguri, the state capital. Both councils are linked and have boarders with the terrorist's camps of Marte and Sambiza Forests acclaimed to have been destroyed by JTF during the peak of the emergency rule and the military onslaught of Boko Haram terrorists in the state since June this year.

© 2013 Vanguard Media Limited, Nigeria