

News

Wife, friends stab husband to death, sister alleges

BY MONSUR OLOW-OOPEJO

A 35-YEAR-OLD car dealer, Mr. Kelvin Okhire, was allegedly stabbed to death, yesterday, by his wife, Mrs. Adesuwa and his corpse was deposited at the Lagos State University Teaching Hospital, LASUTH, mortuary, Ikeja, at about 3:00p.m.

It was gathered that few minutes after depositing the corpse, Adesuwa alerted the sister to the deceased, Ms. Lyn Okhire, who had been searching for the deceased.

Eye-witness at the hospital told Vanguard that when Lyn demanded to know the cause of her brother's death, she was beaten up by Adesuwa and her cohort, one Festus.

Lyn, who spoke to vanguard with gloomy eyes, alleged that Adesuwa, Sonny and Festus stabbed Kelvin to death today, (yesterday) and carted away his property.

"When I sighted the corpse, I discovered that there were several marks on his body, which showed that he was stabbed to death."

All efforts to speak with the wife, Adesuwa proved abortive as newsmen were barred from gaining access to her.

Paediatricians