Man remanded in prison for robbery, murder

BY ONOZURE DANIA

LAGOS—A 32-year-old man, Suleman Kabiru, was yesterday remanded in prison custody by an Ikeja Magistrate's Court, Lagos, over alleged murder and armed robbery.

Magistrate Abimbola Komolafe ordered that the defendant be remanded in Kirikiri Prisons, pending the legal advice from the Office of the State Director of Public Prosecutions, DPP, and adjourned the case till November 5 for mention.

The defendant is facing a three-count charge bordering on conspiracy, murder and armed robbery, preferred against him by the police.

Police prosecutor, Eranus Nnamonu, told the court that the defendants and others at large committed the alleged offence at 9p.m., on March 8 at Isolo area of Lagos.

He said that the defendant, armed with AK-47 rifle and other dangerous weapons, attempted to rob UBA Isolo Branch, shot and killed one Mr. Eze Okoro.

He said the offence is contrary to Section 228, Criminal Law of Lagos State, 2011.
