Landslide kills 4 in Katsina

on November 14, 2013 / in News 9:43 pm / Comments

FOUR persons, including three children were killed, Thursday, by a landslide at an excavation site in Funtawa village, Rimi Local Government Area of Katsina State.

Eyewitnesses told newsmen that the incident occurred at 10.30 a.m. The victims include Malam Maharazu, 20, Ma'aruf Mohammed, 12, Kabiru Abdullahi, 8, and Haliru Mohammed, 7.

They said after the incident, people besieged the site to rescue the victims, who were brought out dead.

The Secretary of the council, Alhaji Garba Lawal, confirmed the incident and said that it took the rescuers three hours to recover the bodies of the victims. Lawal said the deceased were taken to their families for burial in accordance with Islamic injunction.
