

Police kill alleged cow thief, recover 50 cows in Zamfara

BY SALISU MARADUN

GUSAU — THE Police in Zamfara State have killed a man who allegedly stole 50 cows in Mada.

Speaking shortly after he paraded the corpse of the rustler, the Commissioner of Police, CP, Alhaji Ahmed Ibrahim, explained that the hoodlum was over-powered during a shoot-out at Ajiyawa village forest of Mada in Gusau Local Government

Area of the state.

The commissioner who spoke through the command's Public Relations Officer, DSP Lawal Abdullahi, maintained that their men also recovered dangerous weapons including a loaded AK-47 riffle.

He revealed that officers and men of the state command were always at alert to prevent criminal activities in all nooks and crannies of the state.

According to him, for the second time within the last two weeks, his men have recorded tremendous achievements in addressing the activities of underworld men.

He appealed to the residents to continue to give useful information that may lead to the arrest of people with a questionable character.

16 suspects with in Niger

