

Vanguard

Skye Bank MasterCard

Shop and Pay for goods and services anytime, anywhere across more than 32 million locations worldwide.

BREAKING NEWS

TRANSLATE:::

Select Language ▼

Gunmen attack secondary school staff quarters, kill 5-year-old on April 20, 2014 / in News 2:08 pm / Comments

Police in Bauchi State said suspected gunmen set ablaze some houses in the staff quarters of Government Girls Secondary School (GGSS), Yana, killing a five-year old girl on Sunday.

The police spokesperson in the state, DSP Haruna Mohammed, said on Sunday in Bauchi that the gunmen also burnt a telecommunication mast in the town.

He said they stole a private car belonging to the principal of the school, assuring the public that other students in the school were safe.

“Unknown gunmen attacked the staff quarters of GGSS Yana, Shira Local Government Area of the state, around 2.30 a.m. on Sunday.

“They set the school bus ablaze; and in the process, a five-year-old girl was killed in the fire while they destroyed the vault of a bank,” he said.

According to Mohammed, a combined team of security forces are on the trail of the attackers.

On April 17, the police said a team of security forces foiled an attack by some unknown gunmen on Misau town, Misau Local Government Area of the state.

On April 15 also, the police confirmed that some gunmen snatched two vehicles, marked 206 UN and 139 UN in Soro, Ganjuwa Local Government Area of the state, belonging to the United Nations.

Mohammed said some suspected armed robbers had recently snatched a vehicle belonging to the Bauchi State Television Authority, marked 04C-04 BA. (NAN

You might also like