WARRI—UNKNOWN gunmen in Delta State, yesterday, killed Kpufman Migagan, another vigilante group leader, at Otokutu Junction, Ughellii South Local Government Area.

The incident which happened at about midday is the second in attacks against vigilante leaders in the area in one week.

A similar killer squad also shot dead Udu Vigilante Leader, Prosper Erhinyojare, at a relaxation spot in Eket, Udu locality last Friday.

Migagan, Vigilante Leader in Igbudu, a Warri suburb was reportedly driving in a Toyota Sienna bus towards Warri when the armed men waylaid and shot him to death.

Luck, however, ran out on one of the gang members who was said to have died from gunshots from their victim who engaged them in a shoot-out before his death.

The unidentified corpse of the dead assailant was lying at the Jeremi Police Station.

Contacted, Police Public Relations Officer, Delta State Command, DSP Celestina Kalu, said: “It would be hasty to offer details, but there is report that gunmen shot and badly wounded a vigilante person, and it is yet to be ascertained if he has died.”
