BY DAUD OLATUNJI

ABEOKUTA— The Ogun State Police Command, yesterday, said it had killed two suspected robbers and injured three who were later arrested at their hideout in Epe area of Lagos State .

The Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Muyiwa Adejobi, in a statement said the Special Anti Robbery Squad of the state Police Command engaged the gang in a fierce gun battle.

According to Adejobi, one member of the gang, Ahmed Yusuff, was arrested on April 25, 2014 at Dalemo, Otta, Ogun State after snatching a Benz ML SUV from the owner and the said Ahmed, in the course of Police investigation, agreed to lead the SARS team to their hideout in Epe, Lagos State before the gun battle ensued.

“Those arrested with fatal bullet wounds included Adeyinka Olajuwon, Isiaka Salawu and Jumoke Odukoya. Some of the members, however, escaped with bullet wounds and efforts are in top gear to arrest them.”
