BY SEGUN ADELEYE, 15 JUNE 2014

Abeokuta — A yet to be determined number of operatives of the National Drug Law Enforcement Agency (NDLEA), have lost their lives in Sabo area of Owode Yewa, in Yewa South Local Government Area of Ogun State.

Eye witness accounts told Daily Independent that trouble broke out between the NDLEA officials and suspected illegal drug dealers when the former attempted to effect the arrest of the latter in the boisterous border town.

Some of the suspected drug dealers were also said to have lost their lives in the shoot out which occurred in the early hours of Sunday.

The State Commander of the NDLEA, Bala Fagge, who confirmed the incident, told Daily Independent that the suspected drug dealers shot dead some of his men.

He however did not mention how many were shot dead.

Fagge stated further that he could not comment on the exact figure because he was overtaken by grief.
