BY DAUD OLATUNJI

ABEOKUTA — There was a free-for-all, yesterday, when members of rival cult groups engaged one another at Idowa in Odogbolu Local Government Area of Ogun State, leaving four persons dead.

Vanguard gathered that three men and a housewife lost their lives in the violence.

It would be recalled that in the last three weeks, both Eiye and Aiye cult groups have been terrorizing Ijebu-Ode.

A source said that one man, popularly called Epo, was killed last night by some members of the Eiye cult group and in a reprisal attack, three persons were reportedly killed, including a woman, who was shot dead instead of her husband, known as Alapo-Iresi, who was said to be on the run.

It was further gathered that the fleeing husband was said to be a member of the Eiye cult group and one of the hit-men for the group in Idowa-Ala-Omu area.

Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Muyiwa Adejobi, could not be reached at press time for comment.
