Terror group runs riot in Rivers community

BY JIMITOTA ONOYUME

OYOROKOKO— A terror group has gone on rampage at Oyorokoto community, Andoni Local Government Area, Rivers State, the largest fishing settlement in West Africa.

Niger Delta Voice learnt that life had not been the same in the community in the last three months with its economy under threat, as traders were relocating from the area to safer climes.

For fear of their lives many residents, who spoke to Niger Delta Voice, declined to disclose their names. A community leader said: "Four persons, including a policeman, were murdered by the terror group when they raided the community three weeks ago."

A traditional leader at Asarama, a nearby community, disclosed that the gang had
