The quest by an Assistant Superintendent of Police, ASP, (names withheld) attached to Ilu-Titun, Divisional Headquarters, in Okitipupa council area of Ondo State to satisfy his sexual urge while on duty has allegedly cost him his life.

He reportedly died while having sex with a woman allegedly laced with the dreaded 'thunder bolt' (magun). Sunday Vanguard gathered that officer, after reporting for duty on the ill-fated day, inspected the officers on duty.

The residence of the woman he had sex with is said to be a walking distance to the police station. It was gathered that the relationship between the lovers had been on for a long time.

Sunday Vanguard learnt that the police officer, who had no premonition that death was lurking around the corner, walked into the embrace of his lover only to somersaulted mid way into sex.

It was gathered that around midnight, the woman raised the alarm, but nobody answered her following which she rushed to the police station to report the case.

He was reportedly rushed to hospital, but died on the way. Sources said some whitish substances foamed from his mouth.

The woman involved, according to police sources, has been arrested and detained.

The image maker of Ondo State Police Command, Wole Ogodo, said he was not aware of the incident.

But a police source in Okitipupa confirmed the incident, saying it was being discussed in hushed voices within the police command in the state.
