Osun varsity shut over student's death

THE authorities of the Osun State University, UNIOSUN, have ordered the closure of the Ikire Campus of the university indefinitely.

The closure was made public through a memo issued by the Registrar of the university. It came on the heels of an all-night violent protest by students that eventually led to the death of their colleague.

The Public Relations Officer of UNIOSUN, Mr. Oladeji Abokede, confirmed the closure, adding: "The Ikire campus has been shut down by the university authorities due to a violent protest by the students. The closure is indefinite."
