Police kill robbery suspect, injured in Lagos

By Evelyn Usman

LAGOS— Policemen attached to FESTAC division in Lagos, engaged a robbery gang in a shoot-out, Tuesday, killing one of them while another was wounded.

The robbers, as gathered, were operating around Maza-Maza, on Mile Two-Badagry expressway, dispossessing motorists who were trapped in traffic of their valuables and cash.

It was gathered that the robbers, numbering about five were attacking a military personnel when a team of policemen from FESTAC division on patrol swooped on them.

One of the robbers was said to have opened fire on sighting the policemen. But they were reportedly forced to bow to the superior fire power of the police, as they fled the scene. But one of them was shot dead while another was said to have been hit by a bullet.

Police